Post-office at Stanford Robbed.

The postoffice at Stanford was entered by thieves at an early hour Saturday morning, the safe blown open and about $100 in cash and between $250 and $500 in stamps taken. An entrance in the building was effected by breaking the glass window above the outside of the lock boxes. A hole was drilled in the safe which was broken by the explosion of nitroglycerine, a quantity of which was left on the shelf in the rear of the office. After completing the job the cracksmen made their escape with but little chance of capture.

MATRIMONIAL.

—Miss Ollie Ashbrook entertained the members of her club, Tuesday afternoon. Ices and cakes were served.

On each plate was a bunch of lilies of the valley with a tiny envelope attached containing the announcement of the hostess' engagement to Mr. L. C. Smith, Jr., of Lagrange, Ky. The tallies were hand-painted cupid and trunks. Mr. Smith is a civil engineer connected with the L. & N. with headquarters in Paris. Miss Ashbrook is a popular teacher in the Paris City School, and a graduate of Hamilton College, the class of '06. The wedding will take place at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. M. Barlow, at Richmond, Ky., the latter part of June. Miss Ashbrook also entertained the teachers of the school from five to six.

—The wedding of Miss Anna Roberta Hamilton, of Mt. Sterling, to Dr. Louis Warlaw Haskell, Jr., of Memphis, Tenn., was solemnized in the former city Wednesday evening. The bride is a daughter of Mr. Geo. C. Hamilton, and a niece of Mrs. J. M. Brennan, of this county. Dr. Haskell is a promising young physician of Memphis. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Brennan and little son, of this county, attended the wedding.

—Mr. Alfred Crouch and Miss Nellie Carson were married in Georgetown last week, the Rev. H. C. Kendrick officiating. The bride is thirty-two years of age and the groom eighteen.

Arrested for Murder of King.

Luther Ham, aged about 21, was arrested at Carlisle on a charge of the murder of Hargis King, who was found dead in his buggy near the home of Rainey Smith, with two bullet wounds in his head, one through the left ear, the other penetrating the skull at the base of the brain.

Early Tuesday morning Rainey Smith, a young farmer residing about four miles from Carlisle on the Carlisle and Headquarters turnpike, was startled to find a strange horse and buggy in his yard. In the buggy was the body of Hargis King, aged about thirty-five, a barber, who resided at Mt. Mariah, Nicholas county. Officials were notified and when a search was instituted by Coroner Hutchings and Sheriff Mitchell it was learned that Ham before going to his work, had hung his coat in the barn. Here Mitchell found the coat and on immediate investigation found that the coat was covered with clotted blood, the sleeve was also soiled by blood.

In the inside coat pocket was found a thirty-two calibre revolver with two empty chambers. Immediately upon discovering this evidence Ham was arrested and taken to Carlisle and lodged in jail. When searched it was discovered that there were several blood spots on Ham's shirt.

Upon being placed in jail and being questioned concerning the tragedy young Ham denied that he knew anything of the crime and said that he had left King in Carlisle.

Several persons in Carlisle saw Ham and King together, when they left Carlisle for home, after the time Ham claims to have left King. Ham for some time has been employed by Frank Mann in Nicholas, as a farm hand, and this is the first trouble that he has been in.
